BIG VOTE AT THE PRIMARIES

BROWN HAS NO ORGANIZED OPPOSITION—JOHNSON WINS ALL HIS BATTLES EVEN BREAKING VIDA'S SLATE IN THE SEVENTH OF THE FIFTH—ACHI IS DEFEATED BY JOHN LANE—A JOLLIPLICATION MEETING YESTERDAY.

The Republican primaries on Saturday night called out a big vote. The various leaders did a lot of hard work with the result that Brown, as expected, landed a majority of delegates who will vote for him for the nomination for sheriff. Sam Johnson landed most of his men and even succeeded in breaking Vida's slate in his own precinct while Achi met with the expected squelching. He is once more dead, but is not more so than he has been numerous times before. His defeat was made the occasion of a celebration yesterday by the Lane Sunday school class. Delegate Kuhlo being one of those who attended. It was a strictly Hawaiian meeting.

Much interest centered in the direct primary in the second of the Fourth. The notable results were the defeat of Cathcart by Andrade, for county attorney, defeat of Vida for deputy sheriff and Chillingworth's heavy vote for the Senate nomination. The figures were as follows:

For Delegate to Congress—Jonah Kallanapala, 109.

For Territorial Senator—Charles Broad, 25; Charles F. Chillingworth, 108; E. K. Liliakani, 24; L. L. McCandless, 77; W. O. Smith 106.

PERSONS AND THINGS ON MAUI ISLAND

KAHULUI RAILROAD IS MAKING IMPROVEMENTS DURING THE SLACK SEASON.

Mr. J. P. Cooke and family returned to Honolulu by "Claudine" on Wednesday night last after spending three months at their summer home, "Kulamant" in Kula. They expressed themselves as having had a fine summer.

Mrs. Dora von Temsky of Makawao was a passenger to Honolulu on Wednesday night by "Claudine," where she goes for a weeks visit partly on business and partly on pleasure.

Jared G. Smith has been on Maui for a week past looking into the needs and conditions of the small farmer. He is at present at Nahiku inspecting the rubber industry.

Mr. C. D. Lufkin, the Wailuku banker goes to Honolulu tomorrow night by the "Kinau," for a brief business visit returning by first opportunity next week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Murdoch and family are at Ollinda for an outing and expect to spend two weeks in that delightful climate.

A new engagement has been announced on Maui it being again one of Makawao's charming young ladies, the interested parties being Miss Isa Lindsay of Hailku, and Jas. M. Laird, at present book-keeper for the Kohala Ditch Co., on Hawaii.

A good game of polo was played on the Sunnyside field last Saturday the Reds winning out over the Whites by the score of 5 to 3. An unusually large number of spectators were present a majority of whom were ladies, so, naturally the players put their best foot forward. The line up was:

Whites:—C. S. Dole, Sam Baldwin, D. C. Lindsay, Harold Rice and J. B. Thomson. Reds: F. F. Baldwin, C. C. Krumpholtz, Geo. S. Aiken, E. A. Peck and W. O. Aiken.

The golf links of the Haleakala Ranch in upper Makawao have been very popular of late, many enthusiasts occupying them day after day. The Rev. B. V. Bazata is golf captain at present, and some good scores are made there nearly every week. Among those who have been playing quite regularly of late are, B. V. Bazata, J. P. Cooke, C. S. Dole, Sam Baldwin, L. von Tempel, Dr. Geo. S. Aiken, Theo. Nickel, Miss Charlotte Baldwin, Miss Irene Aiken and Miss Alice Cooper. Golf seems to have come to Maui to stay.

The interest in tennis on the Island seems to have been greatly stimulated by the tournament held at Puunene on the 11th of August. The game is being played more than ever in all parts and the Courts that have constant use now are as follows: Puunene, Kahului, Wailuku, Paia, Sunnyside, Puunamole, Maluhia and Haleakala Ranch. Each annual tournament will doubtless show much improvement in the tennis played.

The Masonic Lodge building at Kahului is now fast nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy some time next month. At the stated meeting of the Lodge to be held on Saturday night next definite plans will be made for the dedication of the building and also for some sort of public celebration of the event.

Miss Nellie E. Smith of Hamakua, who recently underwent a very serious operation at the Puunene Hospital, is getting along very well and improving every day. It will be however at least four weeks more before she will be able to leave the hospital.

The Kahului R. R. Co., taking advantage of the slack season are repairing and repainting their buoys in the harbor. Several of the big iron floats are to be seen on shore near the wharf undergoing a thorough overhauling.

DOLE TO THE COAST.

Charles S. Dole arrived by the Kinau after spending nearly nine months on Maui, at the Haleakala ranch. Mr. Dole plans to leave for the coast for a visit to his parents about the 11th of September to attend a reunion of all his family. Later Mr. Dole expects to return to District Magistrate at Kapaa.

For Representative, Fourth District—A. D. Castro, 27; A. G. Correa, 24; G. K. Ewaliko, 17; John A. Hughes, 109; John M. Keneloh, 20; W. H. Kallimal, 18; Daniel Kikaha, 17; Ella A. Long, 78; E. W. Quinn, 104; W. T. Rawlins, 117; W. C. Roe, 44.

County Candidates—

County Clerk—D. Kalaokalani, Jr., 105.

County Treasurer—F. T. P. Waterhouse, 98.

County Auditor—James Bicknell, 90; H. M. Dow, 29.

County Attorney—Frank Andrade, 60; John W. Cathcart, 42; C. A. Long, 26.

Sheriff—A. M. Brown 98.

Deputy Sheriff—J. S. Kalakiela, 51; Henry C. Vida 41; David Hanale, 12.

Supervisor-at-Large—W. W. Harris 106.

Supervisor—Walter Dillingham, 112; Samuel C. Dwight, 84; Nagaran Fernandes, 16; Charles Hustace, Jr., 116; J. C. Quinn, 38.

Under the rule adopted by the precinct the candidates who received 77 votes or over are to have the support of the precinct's delegation. The unit rule was adopted so that the delegates are to vote solidly for all who received as many as 77 votes, being a majority of the precincts.

FELL FORTY FEET FROM A TREE

NINE YEAR OLD BOY HAS A REMARKABLE ESCAPE WITH HIS LIFE—FEARFULLY MANGLED.

KAHULUI, September 1.—W. I. Wells and family, formerly of Wailua, Kauai, have located on Maui permanently and will reside at Makawao in the cottage on the hill near the Pookole church, just above Awana's store. Mr. Wells has been appointed principal of the Kaupakulua school during the leave of absence which has been granted to Mr. S. R. Dowdle, and is also interested in pineapples having a patch of several acres already under way on the lower part of the land of Judge Chas. Copp near the Lilikoi hill.

Mr. Wells and family are visiting their brother H. M. Wells at Hailku for the present, but expect to get into their new home very soon.

This morning the nine year old boy of W. I. Wells sustained a very painful and serious accident. He had climbed high up in a Norfolk Pine tree when a limb broke and he fell to the ground a distance of 40 feet, head downwards. Putting both hands forward to catch himself he struck the ground and broke both arms just above the wrist, one of the bones of the left forearm protruding several inches through the flesh.

The little fellow has been taken to the Paia Hospital, where everything possible is being done for him. There is a bare possibility that one hand may have to be amputated, but this can not be determined for several days. There is a fear also that he may have sustained some internal injury from the terrible shock of the fall. So far he is doing very well.

POLITICS IN MAUI COUNTY

MUCH INTEREST CENTERS IN THE CHOICE OF A SUCCESSOR TO SENATOR C. H. DICKEY.

KAHULUI, August 31.—Politics on Maui are very quiet, there being very little canvassing going on for any of the official positions to be filled. Most of the present County officers have announced their desire for a renomination but as yet there are no fights on for any of the different places. Some of the Precinct clubs have already made their nominations for Delegates to the County and Territorial Conventions who will be elected tomorrow night, but most of the Republican precinct clubs will hold meetings on Saturday night next at which nominations and elections will be made at the same time. This course is pursued owing to the distances that the voters have to travel to the meeting. There is no certainty as yet as to who will get the Republican nomination for Senator to fill the vacancy made by the expiration of the term of Hon. C. H. Dickey, H. M. Coke, editor of the Maui News, would accept the nomination if properly tendered him, and he would without doubt make a good Senator and would look after Maui's interests well. It seems to be practically conceded that the nominee is to be a Wailuku man, and the other names mentioned so far are George Weight, Sam Kellinot and W. J. Coelho. Of all these Mr. Coelho has perhaps been doing the most canvassing but he has done it in a quiet way by personal visits to different sections. However the nomination may yet go to some man whose names has not yet been mentioned.

It is the general opinion that there will be no one to oppose Prince Kuhio for the nomination of Delegate to Washington, and in consequence very little importance is attached to the nominations to the Territorial Convention.

On Kauai. Mr. Dole will be missed on Maui amongst the polo players and golfers, and also society in general.
